Bigfoot and Dogman and other cryptids are beings who are on a commission to watch and harm certain people. Those people seem to be the descendents of the hybrid Middle East Tribes who we refer to as the AshkeNAZI Zionists, Sephardic Jews and the Merovingian monarchy descendents today. Lets just refer to them as Satan's bloodline tribes to make it quick and easy.

They appear to be back on earth as part of the FINAL JUDGEMENT of those tribes above who are disobedient to the will of their alien gods as well as Jesus and Our Heavenly Father. In prophecy, they seem to be here to kill certain people during this Judgment period.

"Beasts of the field" in prophecy generally symbolize hostile nations, demonic forces, or agents of divine judgment (like famine or wild animals) sent against disobedient people. They represent the chaos and spiritual attacks that arise when divine protection is withdrawn, often devouring or destroying in contexts of divine judgment. Facebook +4

Key Aspects of Beasts in Prophecy:

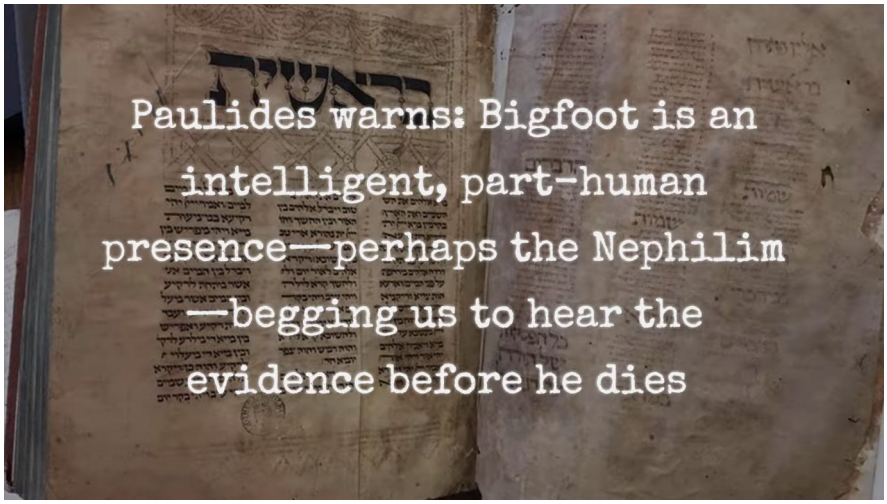
- Agents of Judgment: God warns in Scripture that He will send "wild beasts" or "beasts of the field" as part of a curse for disobedience, which will, in some cases, literally or figuratively destroy crops, livestock, and people.
- Symbolic Nations (Daniel 7): Daniel's prophecy describes four massive animals representing four successive, brutal earthly kingdoms (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome) that devour and dominate the earth.
- Spiritual Entities: In some contexts, "beasts of the field" refers to demonic forces or spiritual powers that act as enemies of God's people, particularly when spiritual leadership fails.
- Revelation Beasts: The book of Revelation describes symbolic beasts—one from the sea, one from the earth—representing power structures that receive authority from the dragon (Satan) to rule and persecute the faithful.
- Reversal in the Millennium: In prophetic descriptions of the future Messianic age (e.g., Isaiah 11), these dangerous wild animals are depicted as peaceful, dwelling with lambs and children, symbolizing the restoration of creation to peace and order. YouTube +8

These figures function to illustrate the danger of walking against God and to show God's ultimate sovereignty over both human history and natural/supernatural threats.

We are NOT ALONE OUT THERE

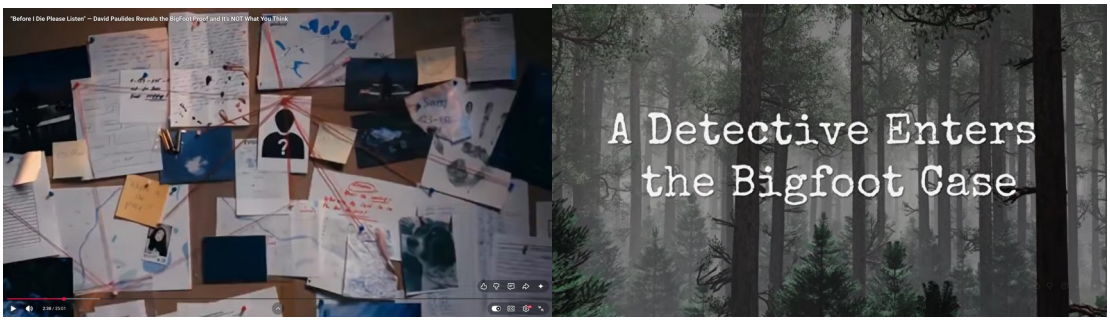
Yet many of us do not have to worry about them who have the protection of what Christians call the Holy Spirit or whom I refer to as Jesus and his WATCHER angels.

Bible prophecy is all about BAD THINGS HAPPENING TO BAD PEOPLE and if you are not on that list you may have protected status during this 7 Year Tribulation Period.



In the Bible aka Old Testament the Nephilim were a race of genetically altered people known as giants whose DNA had been manipulated by aliens aka "the gods."

Chimeria like Bigfoot and Dogman are also genetically altered people with special skill sets who take orders from aliens and possibly the Shadow Government.



This is police investigator David Paulides the most respected Bigfoot researcher on the planet who is an author of many books on these subjects.

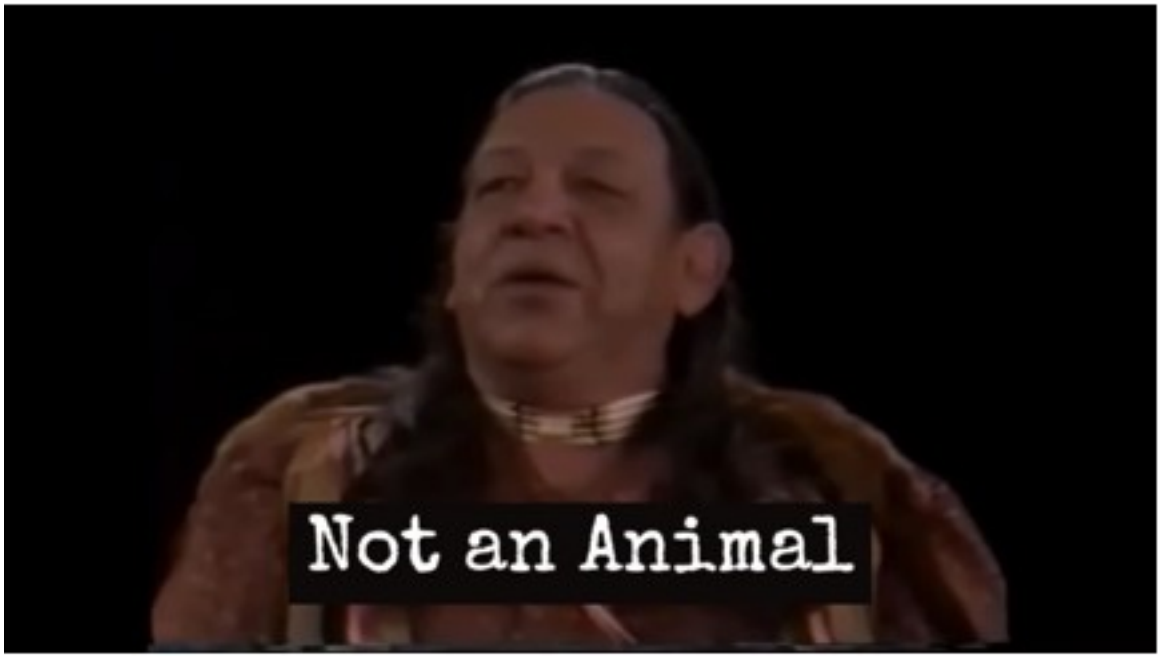
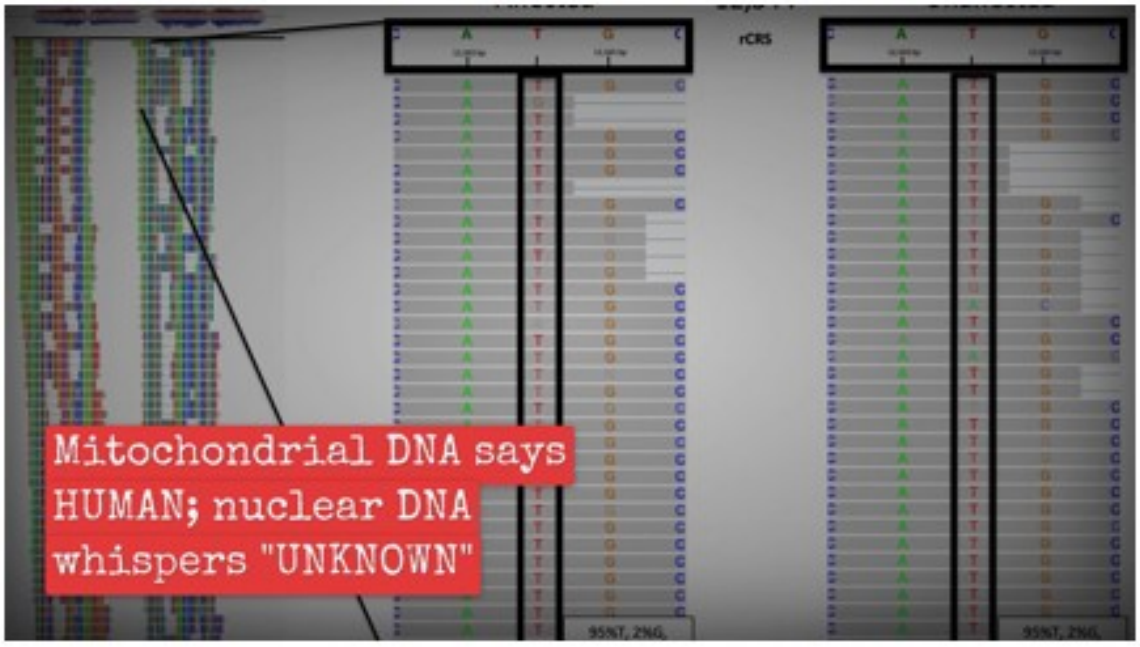
Rigor over rumors or folklore



Indians do not refer to them as an animal they refer to them as a people and call them their brothers, with some good and some bad. Indians do not appear to be on the Bigfoot target list.



Using DNA analysis David and Norma Ketchum discovered that the Mitochondria DNA of Bigfoot comes from the American Indians who know about Bigfoot, have dealt with Bigfoot and refer to them s their brothers.

David wants to know why the government is covering up for the existance of these Chimera saying if they are not dangerous and are a member of human society than why the cover them up?

Freedom of Information Act releases obtained by investigative author David Paulides arrived looking more like abstract art than disclosure. Of the 67 pages mailed from the National Park Service, 87 percent of every line was swathed in midnight-black redaction bars, leaving only dates and case numbers visible. “If there was nothing to hide,” Paulides told this paper, “why erase almost the entire record?”

Internal Department of the Interior e-mails—subject line "Sasquatch inquiry, level-3 clearance required"—detail a 2011 directive ordering park rangers to funnel all creature-sighting reports to a “central assessment unit” run jointly by Forest Service and Army intelligence officers. Another memo warns of possible public panic if biological profile is confirmed. Independent scientists who requested tissue samples say they were later told the material had been “misplaced in transit.”

It appears the Government knows why, which is the reason for the cover up.
